Goodearth Hotel a Winner at the 2011 AHA WA Accommodation Industry Awards

The Goodearth Hotel was announced as the winner of the Best Mid-Range Accommodation Award at the industry's premier event, the AHA Accommodation Hotels Gala Ball, held on Monday 22nd August 2011. The ball celebrated the outstanding levels of excellence and recognised the high standards upheld by the Western Australian accommodation industry.

The 3.5 star AAA rated Goodearth Hotel offers 180 spacious rooms and apartments, plus a restaurant, bar, hairdresser and beauty salon, meeting and function rooms, 24-hour reception, tour desk, wireless internet access and limited free car parking. Conveniently located on Adelaide Terrace in Transperth's free transit zone, the hotel is just minutes from the tranquil waters of the Swan River, WACA sporting ground, Burswood Casino and magnificent Kings Park, while Perth's main shopping, entertainment and nightlife areas are a short walk away or easily accessible via the City's regular free bus service.

With a range of accommodation options from Studios to Two Bedroom Apartments and dormitory-style Open Plan Apartments, the Goodearth Hotel is ideal for solo travellers, couples, families, corporate clients and groups, looking for value and comfort with all the benefits of full hotel service in a convenient location.
